Blenheim Graveyard
Near Havre de Grace, Harford County, Maryland

Historical Background

The following was written on a transcription of the Blenheim Graveyard concerning its historical background. The date of the transcription is unknown at this time.

"This walled burying ground is located on the property known as Blenheim owned by Miss Inez H. Osborn, north of Oakington Station, near Havre de Grace. It passed from the hands of the Smith family about 1831, when acquired by Dr. William Sappington, whose brother John K. enclosed the graveyard, and whose daughter, Helen Matthews, sold it to Miss Osborn's father, Henry Amos Osborn, about 1887.

Photos of Current Condition

Fig. 1: Corner Stone next to the gate entering the cemetery.

Fig. 2: Grave of Nathan Ramsay Servant of Dr. J. K. Sappington.

Fig. 3: Grave of Luther Howard Servant of the Osborn family.

Fig. 4

Fig. 5

Fig. 6

Fig. 7

Fig. 8

Fig. 9

Compiled by:
Christopher Smith
123 Road
Baltimore, Maryland 21117
(410) 555-1212 (Home) / (410) 555-1212 (Cell)
email@address.com

Blenheim Graveyard
Near Havre de Grace, Harford County, Maryland

Fig. 10

Fig. 11

Fig. 12

Fig. 13

Fig. 14

Fig. 15

Fig. 4 – Fig. 13: Current Condition of cemetery.

Fig. 14 & 15: The cemetery is located in the tree line. Notice the new houses near the tree line.

Compiled by:
Christopher Smith
123 Road
Baltimore, Maryland 21117
(410) 555-1212 (Home) / (410) 555-1212 (Cell)
email@address.com